Old Business:

Had tables in a U shape, still a little noisy. Will try another direction next time.

Coconut Kennys now has $10 pizza on Tuesdays. Do you think they miss us?

Linda has not had a chance to speak with Doyle yet about a show. She will propose that he move the cars off his front lot and park the corvettes there. We should have hamburgers and hotdogs and drawings. We can have a bucket for donations. Discussion on donation for school kids, backpacks, school supplies and teacher supplies. We need more planning for a car show, will do that next year.

Linda spoke with Dan Jubie, anytime in the fall is good to visit him. He has plenty of room for parking. We will bring donuts.

Mike Yahns went to the La Conner Classic show. It was windy and his canopy blew into another car. It was ok.

Bill & Karen went to the Eastside Corvette Club All Corvette Show in Monroe. Their son showed his car. They had very nice window placards. We should consider making something similar.

Elections are coming up, start thinking about positions. Linda will not be running.

About 90% of dues have been paid.

New Business:

Doug has put in for next year's car show advertising. Cruising Magazine has been sold and we are not sure what is happening with it. It may be only on-line. Other advertising was discussed. Maybe radio ads or contact the Everett Herald.

Dick & Betty had their corvette sideswiped in the Walmart parking lot. $7,000 worth of damage.

Bryan had an accident in Capone in the Safeway parking lot. He is just about finished with the repairs.

Meeting adjourned at 7:38 pm.

Recent car shows discussed.

C-8 Corvette Convertible

One less C-8 on the road:

While traveling with a group towards Yosemite this C-8 caught the rear wheel of a SUV rounding a curve! The SUV lost it's wheel but the Vette lost the driver's front corner. No comments on who was at fault.

CORVETTE RACING AT ROAD AMERICA: Another Hard-Luck Afternoon

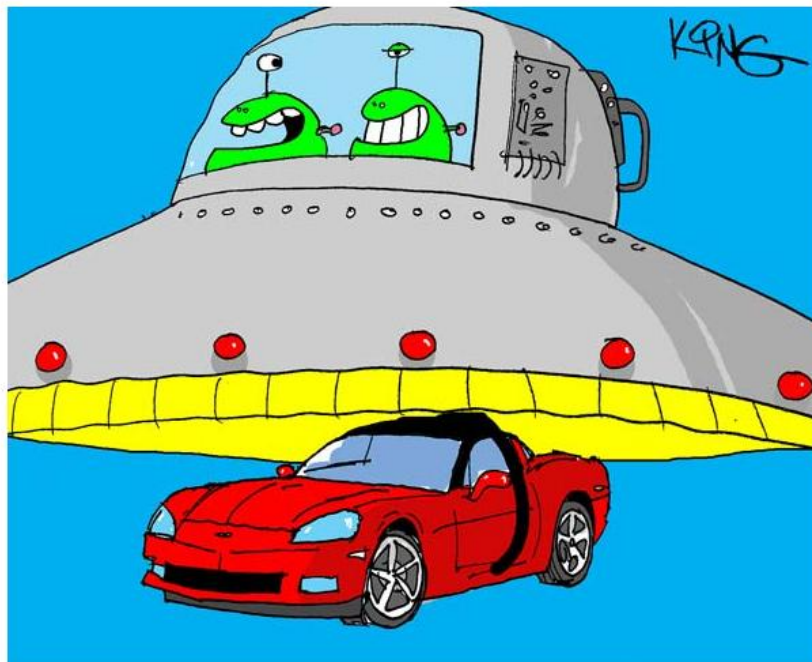

ELKHART LAKE, Wisc. (Aug. 3, 2019) – Luck wasn't on the side of Corvette Racing on Sunday as the team logged fourth- and sixth-place finishes in the IMSA WeatherTech SportsCar Championship's Road Race Showcase at Road America.

Both Chevrolet Corvette C7.Rs led the GT Le Mans (GTLM) category and were in contention for the program's 100th victory in IMSA competition. Ultimately, however, the race and fortune went against Corvette Racing as it went for an eighth class victory at the circuit.
