Old Business:

The Secret Cove has closed. We need to find a new location for the 2025 Christmas Party. Mike contacted Maureen who has agreed to help find a venue. Julie suggested Gere-a Deli in Anacortes. Julie will check to see if they can accommodate our large group.

We picked a date for a poker run. It will be on 07/26/25. Dale & Patti, Julie & Jeremy, Mike & Marcie, Joanne and Kristie agreed to use their homes. We will have lunch afterwards at Brando's BBQ in Bow. Mike will send an email out with details.

Marcie has still not heard back from Summit Assistance Dogs about having a tour. Bill R. is going to reach out to a contact he has for them.

New Business:

We had 2 new members join the club. Joe B and Scott. Joe B. sent in his registration with Mike. He was not able to make the meeting. He has a 96 Convertible and a 2000 Coupe. Scott introduced himself. He has a 93 Lingenfelter.

We discussed getting a PO Box for the club, so we do not have to publish members addresses. Bill R and John checked prices. It was around $200.00 per year. John is going to check with a couple of locations, and we will decide at the next meeting.

We will be participating in the Anacortes 4th of July Parade again. Marcie will contact Parks & Rec to check on registering our group. We will be going to Anthony's for lunch afterwards. Maureen is making a reservation. We need candy donations to pass out to the kids.

We will be showing our cars to the residents of Harbor Tower Village in Oak Harbor on 08/02/25. The facility will host our group for lunch. We did this last year and had a good time.

Joanne & Brian invited the club to their home on 08/09/25.

Our Show:

Karen has done an amazing job procuring items for the raffle. We have enough items for both days. Shawn O'Donnell's donated a $50.00 gift card tonight.

If you have a radio, please bring it. If you do not have a radio and want to purchase one, Bill A. can assist with setting your radio up.

Mike will have new business cards printed for the club that we can hand out.
